1. Dr. Ivor Nagy, chairman of the Antifascist Committee of Ethnic Germans, told the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Austria that ethnic Germans in Vrbas (Werbas) in the Batschka district of Yugoslavia were given the legal status of a minority group and their Yugoslav citizenship restored. Even German schools were established, and a German newspaper, Der Schaffende, is published in Belgrade and is on sale throughout Yugoslavia. A special repatriation agency was established in Vrbas. Members of the German minority group are urged to write to their relatives and acquaintances to return to Yugoslavia.
2. At meetings, Nagy along with Urschitz, representative of the Anti-Fascist Committee, and Kosilek, the newly appointed Salzburg representative, discourage any repatriation to Yugoslavia of ethnic Germans.
